THE LONE EAGLE

Words by George B. Jackson

Music by Charlotte B. Weaver

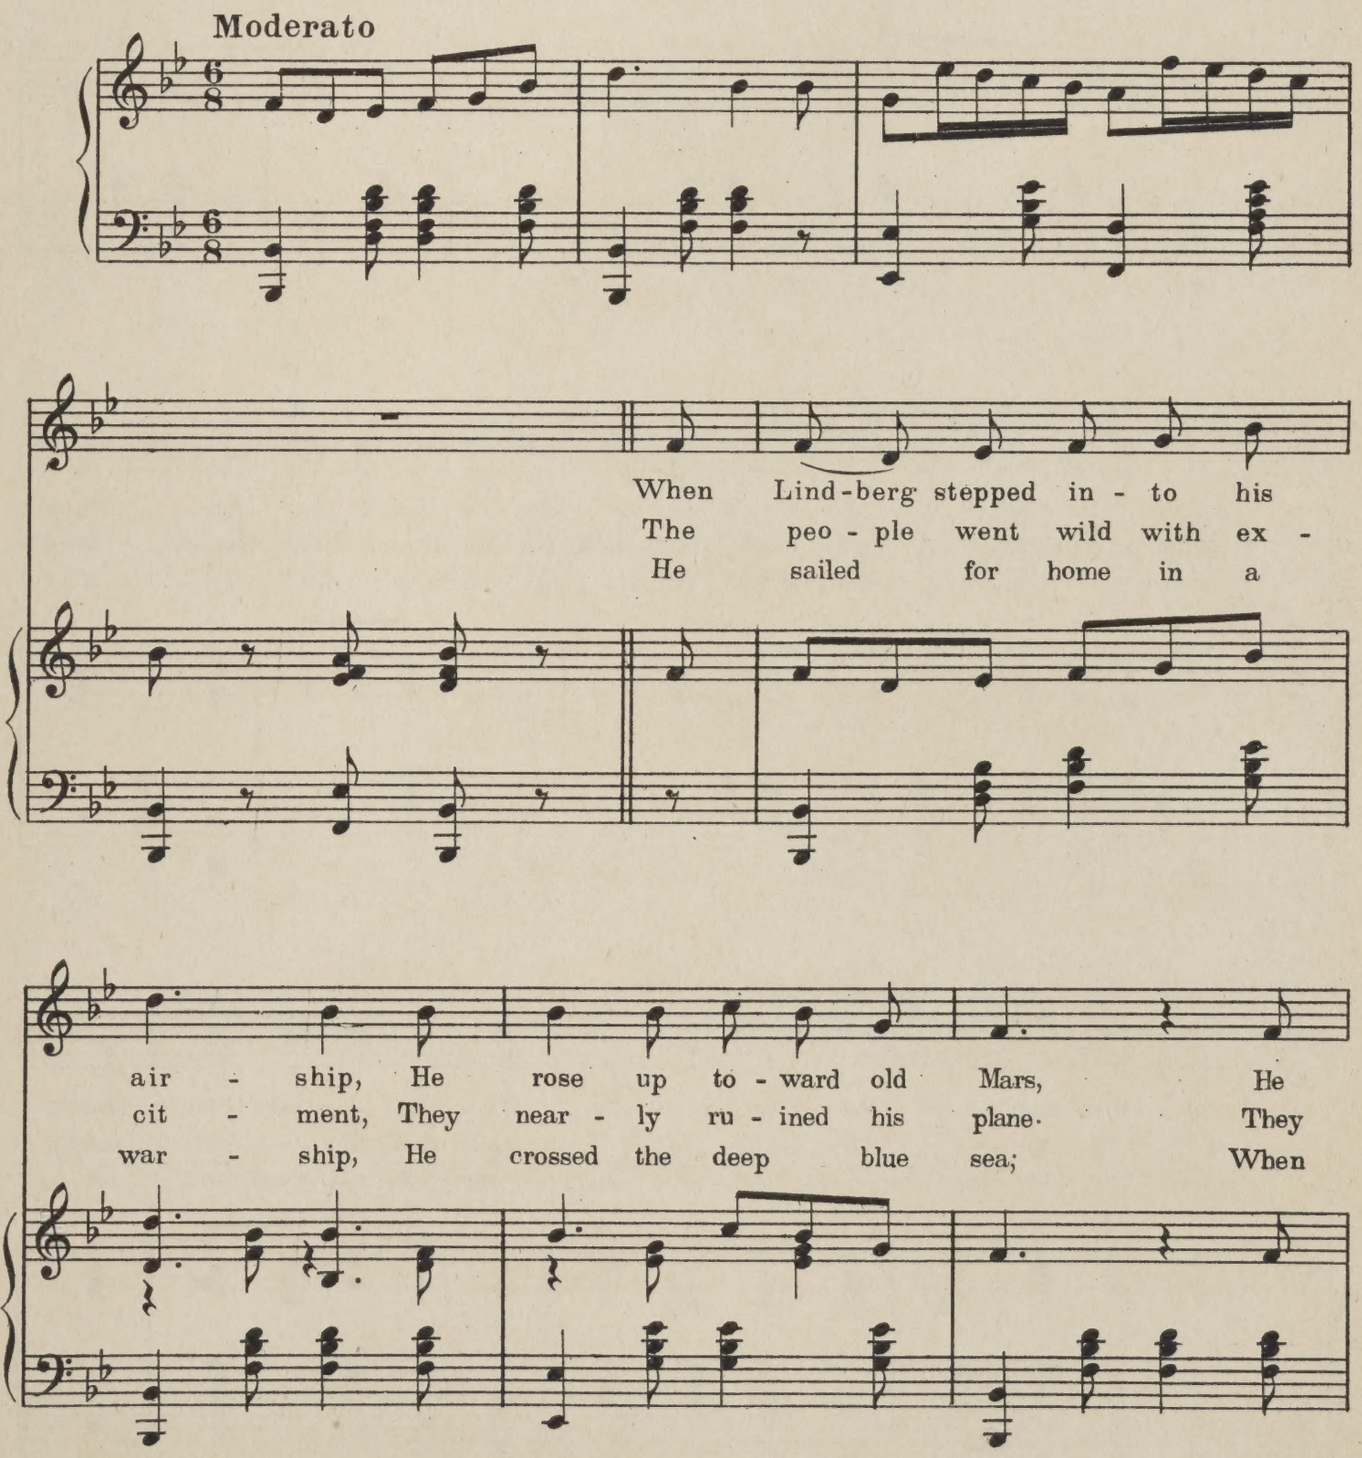
Price 35¢

Published by
GEORGE B. JACKSON
NUNDA, N.Y.

The Lone Eagle

Words by
GEORGE B. JACKSON

Music by
CHARLOTTE B. WEVER



Moderato
When Lind-berg stepped in - to his
The peo - ple went wild with ex -
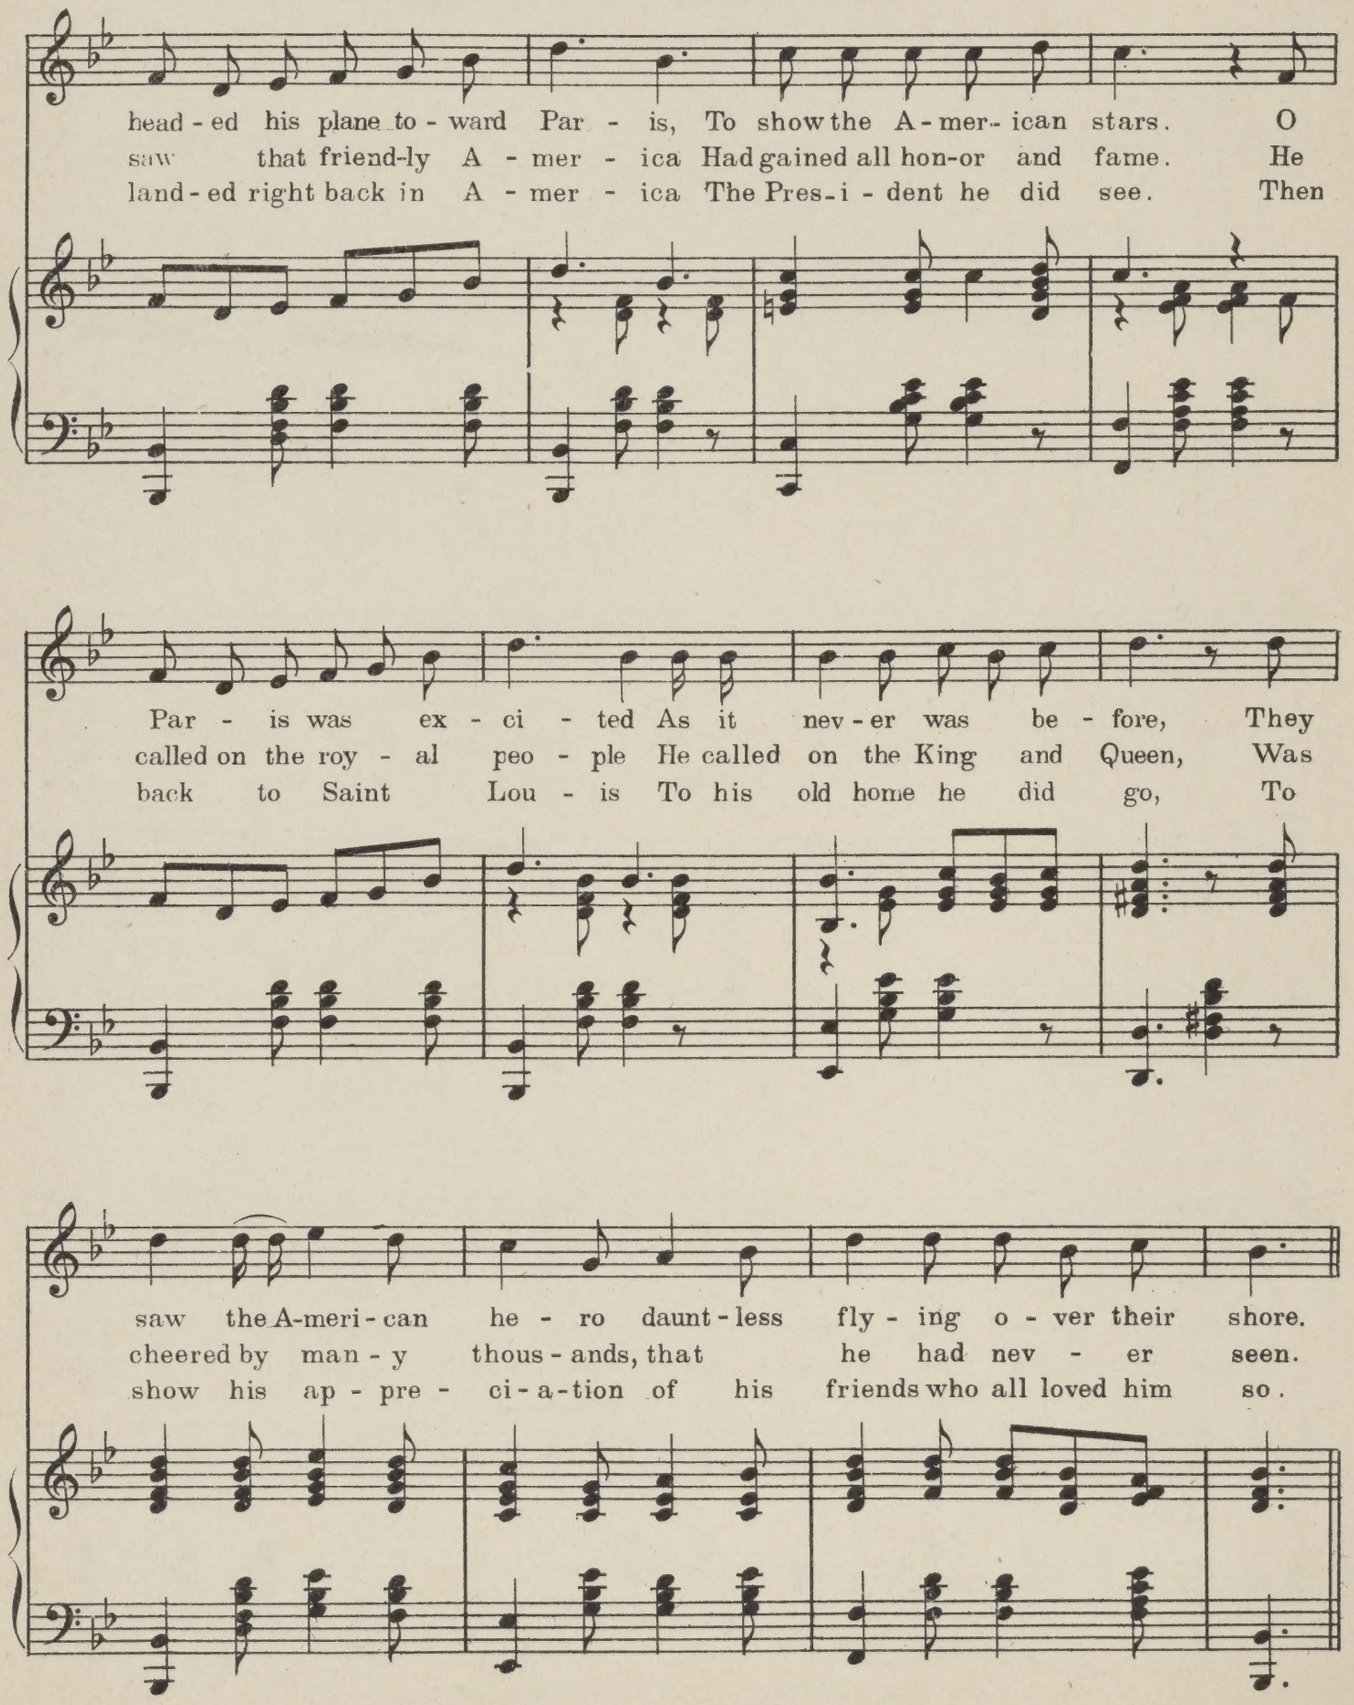
He sailed for home in a air - ship, He rose up to - ward old Mars, He cit - ment, They near - ly ru - ined his plane. They war - ship, He crossed the deep blue sea; When

Copyright MCMXXVIII by George B. Jackson
Nunda, N. Y.

Internation Copyright Secured

All Rights Reserved



head - ed his plane to - ward Par - is, To show the A - mer - ican stars. O saw that friend-ly A - mer - ica Had gained all hon-or and fame. He land - ed right back in A - mer - ica The Pres - i - dent he did see. Then Par - is was ex - ci - ted As it nev - er was be - fore, They called on the roy - al peo - ple He called on the King and Queen, Was back to Saint Lou - is To his old home he did go, To saw the A-meri - can he - ro daunt - less fly - ing o - ver their shore.
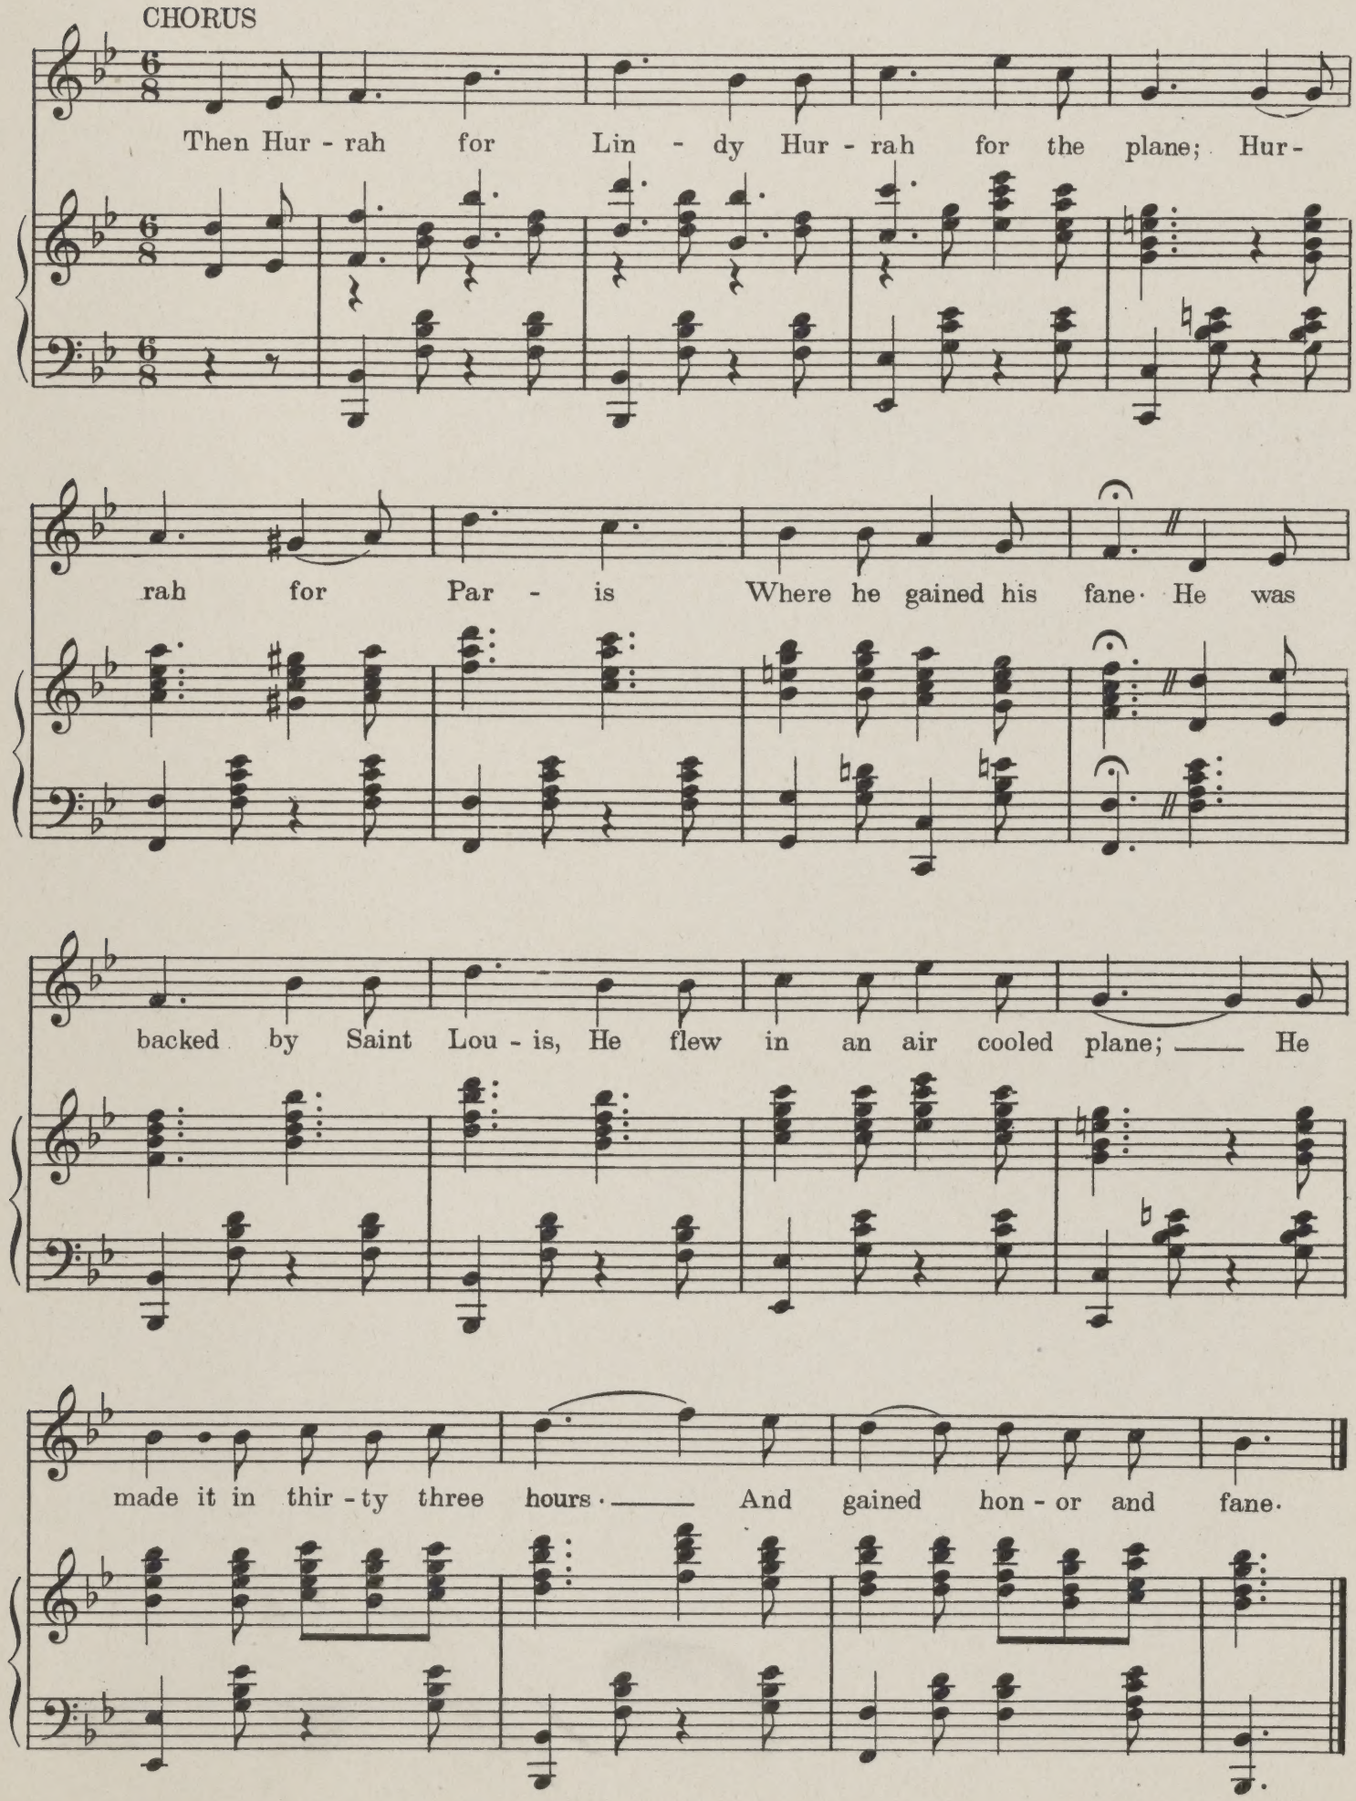
cheered by man - y thous - ands, that he had nev - er seen.
show his ap - pre - ci - a - tion of his friends who all loved him so.



CHORUS
Then Hur - rah for Lin - dy Hur - rah for the plane; Hurrah for Par - is Where he gained his fane· He was backed by Saint Lou - is, He flew in an air cooled plane; ___ He made it in thir - ty three hours· ___ And gained hon - or and fane·

RAYNER, DALHEIM & CO.
MUSIC PRINTERS
CHICAGO